

NEW FEATURE

▪ Behavior-Based Malware Analysis and Detection

Behavior-Based Malware Analysis and Detection Policy setting in the console.

▪ Offline device management

Register and manage new devices, devices stored in a warehouse, operating systems not supported like Linux, Peripherals like a mouse and devices not able to install the client program on.

▪ Collecting user operation logs

- Microsoft Edge is newly supported as the browser for collecting web access log.
- Collect document access as the document access log.
- Following cloud storages are newly supported in the file upload log.
Google Drive /One Drive /Dropbox /Secure Storage
- Following service is supported in the webmail send log.
Outlook Web App for Office365
- Excluded service setting and alert setting in the sent webmail log.

▪ Notification message to client user

It is now possible to send notification to Windows PC from the user console. You can notify to the user who do nothing for vulnerability or use pc during off- hours.

It is useful for security measures and personnel management.

▪ Add inventory item

Add software installation date for the Windows software inventory item.

